for participants with learning disabilities
at Darwin Court | Adults

Information Leaflet and Registration Form
Winter 2018 | 22 January – 26 March 2018

This booklet contains information about dance-theatre classes for adults with learning disabilities run by involuntarymovement and managed by the Southwark Disablement Association (SDA) at Darwin Court.

Our classes are fully inclusive.

Open classes are particularly suited to participants who have profound and multiple learning disabilities.

Performance workshops are designed to be accessible to participants who have moderate to severe learning disabilities.

We welcome and encourage participants of all physical abilities and backgrounds.

Support workers accompanying participants are welcome to join us free of charge. We require support staff to fully take part in class. Please ask us for our support worker information sheet for more details.

A registration and referral form is included within this booklet.

Open classes

For anyone wanting to have fun using movement and creative dance, with a bit of drama. We start with a warm-up which can be done either standing or sitting on a chair or wheelchair. We then make up a dance together and share it with each other at the end of each class.

You can come in for just one session, but we encourage you to book for the whole term, as the number of available places are limited.

£ 12 per session

Performance / Creative workshops

Our performance workshops start off in the same way as our open classes. Over the course of the term we put the dances from different sessions together and make longer sequences. Participants can then take a recording of their performance home to share with family and friends.

Please note that because each session builds on previous work, our performance / creative workshops are bookable for the whole term only.

£ 120 per term of 10 sessions
